—is a sale—

THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

A sale to clear out all winter goods before Spring; a sale whereby you will get more for your money than ever before.

Don't confuse this sale with the ordinary "clearance" sale; bear in mind that this isn't any half-hearted, poorly-conducted, scantily-provided, gingerly-priced sales event. All the big talk isn't in the newspapers—the price tags have a story that all must heed—a story that appeals to economical buyers.

IF YOU VALUE MONEY

—now is the time to show it by practical application of your good judgment, which will surely guide to this store. We merely mention the former and present prices—impossible to describe goods in detail. A personal inspection will convince you that this is the greatest chance you ever had to make money by buying goods that you need, or will need, at prices that will save you from 25 to 50%. Don't take our word, but come and see for yourself.

THE SOVEREIGN WILL (?)

On the first page of the Gazette today will be found an account of the meeting of the senatorial committee of this district at the Usoma hotel in Fulton last Saturday night. No public notice was given in advance of the meeting and therefore the public was taken by surprise and naturally has begun to look for the bug under the chip. By the terms of the call Graves county can name the senator and doubtless the lucky (?) man has already been promised a delivery of the goods. We feel sure that the masses of the democratic voters will have no voice in making the nomination, and the committee, composed of Mr. Harry Coulter, of Mayfield, and Mr. R. L. Smith, of Clinton, might just as well have declared the nominee at the Usoma hotel last Saturday night. To us it makes little difference to whom the "honor" goes; but such snap methods will not strengthen the democratic party in these three counties. What is at stake, anyway? The senator has but to go to Frankfort and vote for Beckham for United States senator. To us it looks like mighty poor politics for the compelling power behind this committee to antagonize a large body of democratic voters in a year when every democratic vote is going to be needed in Kentucky.

The affront to the town of Hickman shows a reckless disregard for the party's welfare and leads us to suspect that the individual members of the committee were used to settle somebody's old scores against the county seat of Fulton county, which naturally should have been the place to hold the county mass convention. The loss of 600 or 700 democratic votes at Hickman might cut some figure in the senatorial race as well as in the state election this fall.

The calling of mass conventions at Mayfield, Fulton and Clinton to select the delegates to a district convention at Fulton was a most ridiculous thing to do, anyhow, unless there was some sinister purpose in it. Graves county has more delegate votes than the other two counties combined. Had each precinct elected its own delegates, Graves might not have presented a solid front in the convention; but under this call the action of the Mayfield convention is a finality and it would be farcical to hold conventions in Clinton and Fulton.—Clinton Gazette.

Well, brother Walker, what do these individuals care for the interests of the party, when they have their own interests at heart? As far as the affront to the town of Hickman goes, we, (Hickman) do not care; in fact if such snap methods as you speak of are to predominate in the political conventions, Hickman, for her part, would much prefer that they be kept as far from her threshold as possible. The fact is, as you may know, or rather it seems so to us, that the days of letting the people choose their representatives in this district are over, and the matter is decided wholly by oligarchy. However, if the people are willing to remain silent and let this state of affairs rule, what are we poor servants of the people to do, other than sit back and look on with a sickening smile on our faces? An old time, unpolluted democratic convention would be such an unusual incident that we would, at sight of it, sit back in our sanctum, so dumb-founded, that our hair would stand on end.

OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION

In this issue of the Courier will be found the Council proceedings for February. In these proceedings will be found the financial condition

"Fulton's Famous Marrying 'Squire'"

Has married 890 people

SQUIRE J. T. FUTRELL

The above is a good likeness of J. T. Futrell, of this county, the world's champion marrying squire. Up to this date he has performed the marriage ceremony for about 445 couples. Squire Futrell is a plain, sensible gentleman; which, no doubt, accounts for his popularity, to a great measure, with those who are matrimonially inclined—yet full of "fear and trembling." The 'squire, like the painless dentist, guarantees to take the young folks through this trying ordeal without taxing their timidity or leaving them in a nervous strain.

The 'squire took a dose of his own medicine, October 13, 1892, when he was married to Miss Rosa Hall, at Harris, Tenn., his wife's father, a christian minister, performing the ceremony. Two years ago he had the opportunity of returning the compliment by uniting in marriage his father-in-law, Eld. T. H. Hall to Mrs. Lira Woodell both having come from Troy, Tenn., to Fulton, to be married by Esq. Futrell. He married one runaway couple who was eloping from their parents in a two-horse wagon. They stood up in the wagon in the front of the squire's gate while he performed the ceremony. He married a couple on one Sunday and the next Sunday he married the same couple over again. The reason for this was the young man by mistake gave a nickname and afterward desired to be married by his real name, and procured new license and married over. He married two sisters in about ten minutes of the time and neither knew the other was going to get married. The oldest came first and then in ten minutes the younger sister. By mistake he married one couple on the wrong license, and he married them again over next day. He has often married two couples at the same time. Frequently it has so happened that he has performed the ceremony for two sisters at the same time. He said the ceremony for three brothers, now living in Fulton, beginning with the oldest and so on according to their respective ages. He married one couple who walked twenty miles to get to his residence and return. They came to him on foot, in wagon, in buggies, on horseback and on the trains from seven different states. He married one couple from Canada, the young lady not being able to speak or understand a single word of the English language. He has married people at every hour in the day and night, and every day in the week and all seasons of the year.

of the City on January 1, 1907. Your attention is called to this statement by a careful perusal of this statement you will see that the City at present only owes $29,000, with $358.45 in the treasury. The water and light $30,000 90-year bonds is the only indebtedness. Last month a sinking fund was created and $2,000 put to its credit, which virtually reduces the indebtedness to $28,000; then the city owes H. Buchanan $1,000, making the total $29,000. With the E. Case Memorial fund, this month, the five remaining City Hall bonds were redeemed.

Now, this shows the city to be in a fine financial condition. All accrued interest has been paid. There is one thing needed. It is a fact, whether we hesitate to say so or not, that Hickman is the poorest paved city of her size in West Kentucky or Tennessee. This should not be; it creates a bad impression upon prospectors, it is commented upon by visitors. Hickman is to the front, far ahead of the average town so far as financial matters are concerned. Her taxable value is more than the average city; she possesses more enterprising merchants and citizens than the average city, and this being true the fact that our streets are so poorly paved, is a condition to be deeply deplored. It is a condition that should be remedied, and at once. We are not aware if there is such an ordinance, but if there is not, there should be at once, to compel every property owner in the city to lay a good walk in front of his premises, under penalty on failure to do so, in a limited time. And there should be a clause in the ordinance providing a penalty for an officer failing to enforce it. Every citizen should have enough of the town's interest at heart to do this without being made, but when they will not they surely ought to be made take some pride in their surroundings.

We venture there is enough money paid out in fees in a year to the marshals for serving notices on property owners that "if they do not lay a walk in 10 days same will be laid at their expense," to build fifty feet of walk.

We had the pleasure last week of being shown through the poultry plant at the Pines, at Paducah. Mr. R. E. Jones, the proprietor of the plant is an expert poultry judge, and his chickens never go to a show and come away without flying colors. He recently sold a cock for $250. He carries an immense amount of fine fowls of different varieties, but those which attracted our attention most were the large White Wyandottes. He also raises fine Colley dogs. His farm is conveniently equipped with telephone, electric lights and every desirable convenience.

A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town is helping to dig the grave. A man that curses the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from business to give to city affairs is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is driving the hearse. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise is throwing bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy as to be howling hard times preaches the funeral, sings the doxology, and thus the town lies buried from all sorrow and care.

A hale old Democratic trio chatted in the Senate Chamber the other afternoon and attracted much attention. They were ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, Senator Pettus, of Alabama, and Senator Whyte, of Maryland. They are all over 80, their aggregate age being 253 years.

Dr. Feist Found Guilty.

Dr. J. H. Feist, of Nashville, was found guilty of murder in the first degree on the charge of having slain Mrs. Rosa Mangrum. Feist's hands trembled at the verdict, but no other sign of agitation appeared. Three or four men in a crowd of 200 on the public square cheered as the prisoner was led to his cell and placed in solitary confinement. A new trial will be asked for. Dr. Feist was convicted on circumstantial evidence. It was not shown how the woman met her death, prussic acid being the theory.

Mrs. Mangrum was Feist's patient. It was shown she was infatuated with him. On the night of December 14, 1905, she left home to catch the Chicago train. The first news of her disappearance came from St. Louis, where her sister, Mrs. Logan Trousdale, of Birmingham, went, under the belief she might have gone there. While the mysterious disappearance was unsolved, Mrs. Trousdale demanded of the physician where her sister was.

He was greatly agitated, finally declaring she had gone away to be cured of a disease. The body was found January 25 floating in the Ohio near Cairo. The supporter to the stocking in which she was supposed to have carried $1500 was gone. The stocking and money were gone, as well as $1200 worth of jewelry. Shortly after the disappearance Feist deposited $500 in bank, an unusual amount.

Mrs. Mabel McCain, of St. Louis, testified to have overheard snatches of a telephone conversation between Mrs. Mangrum and a party addressed as "Feist" at a resort shortly before the disappearance.

St. Louis officers testified as to this conversation during Mrs. Trousdale's stay in St. Louis. Feist did not testify.

Harry Thaw's Trial.

The trial of Harry Thaw, the Pittsburgh millionaire for the murder of Stanford White, the New York architect on Madison Square treatise roof garden in New York last June, continues from day to day. The trial has been tried for the past five weeks and it seems that there will be another week or more. The lawyers for both sides wrangle from morning until night over the admission of testimony. At present it seems that Thaw will be acquitted, and the sympathy of the people in general throughout the country seems to be for him. At any rate the country has not lost much, in the killing of White, for if there were more of his ilk who got a dose of the same medicine he did the country would be somewhat better off.

—New Styles in "Red Cross" Shoes and Oxfords now on display. Let us fit you.—Bradley & Parham.

Mayfield now has two mysterious murder cases. Recently a man was murdered in a cheap hotel where the house burned. The charred remains of the man were found in the debris. Last year a murdered man was found in a straw stack near town. There is no clue to either the murderers or the identity of the murdered men.

—Phone number 51 for H. C. Barrett the undertaker. Night phone number 164.

The snow Wednesday night was a surprise to the most of us. Even the city clock, at the court-house, was so badly shocked that it stopped still at twenty minutes until five Thursday morning. The snow blew against the hands on the north side and froze them up hard and fast. This is the first time the clock ever stopped.

Look up the Courier's newspaper bargain list. It's almost like stealing 'em.

Polk Head Short in Accounts

The defalcation of Louis Head as clerk of the branch penitentiary, which resulted in his removal from office by the state prison commissioners, in session in Louisville, Thursday, will, of course, put Mr. Head out of the race for re-election as representative of McCracken county, in the next state legislature, for which he was a candidate. Other candidates for the place probably will be brought out in a few days.

The shortage of Mr. Head as clerk of the Eddyville penitentiary, according to a Frankfort special, amounts to a little more than $650, and was taken from what is known as the prisoners' fund.

The order removing him is as follows:

"The accounts of Mr. Louis P. Head, clerk of the Eddyville penitentiary, having been investigated upon the order of the board of prison commissioners, and it being apparent that Mr. Head is short in his accounts with reference to the prisoners' fund, L. P. Head is hereby removed as clerk of the Eddyville penitentiary for neglect of duty, this February 14th, 1907. The secretary of the board is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this order of removal to the warden of the Eddyville penitentiary and to Mr. L. P. Head."—Mayfield Messenger.

Mr. Head the deposed clerk, is a well known labor leader in his section of Kentucky. He was elected from McCracken county to a seat in the lower house of the last General Assembly and was prominent in its deliberations. The prisoner's fund referred to in the order of dismissal entered by the commission, is a fund representing money left at the office of the branch prison by inmates of the institution or their friends for the purchase of small comforts. It is kept by the clerk of the prison and paid out by him for the articles purchased by the prisoners, they being allowed to have money inside the walls.

The Courier hopes Mr. Head may be able to explain and be exculpated.

Making Improvements.

Ellison Bros. are making a modern establishment of their department store. A new floor is being put in, new shelving from floor to ceiling and balconies. One new feature in the list of improvements, which will appeal strongly to the ladies, is a ladies' rest and reception room in the pattern department. This room will have toilet, lavatory, etc. This firm has always had a reputation for push and enterprise, and when the finishing touches of this last department are put on, Ellison Bros. Department Store will be one that will make much larger towns feel like "small towns and few in a hill."

Fire at Fulton.

Fire was discovered about one o'clock Wednesday morning at Fulton, in T. R. Morris' restaurant. The building was entirely destroyed. The goods and furniture of J. A. Milner was damaged by water, also the plate glass windows and the stock of goods.

Jones & Chambers' clothing store was badly damaged by water.

The fixtures and instruments in Dr. I. H. Reid's dental office were damaged by water.

Dr. S. Kohn's office was ruined by water.

H. T. Smith's law office was ruined by water. The insurance had expired only the day before.

Tom Exam's candy store was ruined by water.

The Western Union Telegraph office was put out of business for the time being.

A. B. Torrence had apartments over the Western Union office, and all his household goods were ruined. No insurance.

An unknown man and two women were sleeping over Morris' store and narrowly escaped burning.

Most of the loss was covered by insurance. The loss has not been estimated.

J. R. Pruitt, State Insurance Commissioner, was in Fulton yesterday, looking after the losses.

Rush Creek.

(Last week's items.)

Mr. Will Fields is happy. He has a baby boy at his house.

Another marriage soon—a gentleman not twenty miles away and a lady of this vicinity.

All winter we have traveled on foot like Thales, Plato, and Pythagoras, but I doubt if we are as patient as they, and we do not believe that mad men had the tenacity of ours. But we are hopeful that we may enjoy the privilege of good roads in a short time.

Last Friday afternoon the pupils of Mr. Sugg, our energetic teacher at Rush Creek, entertained in a very pleasing manner. There were recitations and debates and at the close of the exercise there was an old fashioned spelling match, participated in by both children and parents.

Mr. Sugg invited his visitors before adjournment "to make a speech." Mrs. J. R. McClellan and Mrs. Dan Davis made some very appropriate remarks. Mr. J. R. McClellan and Mr. W. B. McGehee gave the children some good advice in a few words. Others in attendance were: Misses Lena and Lizzie Pigg, Messrs. Wiley and Tyler Davis and Mrs. W. B. McGehee. Mr. Dan Davis was one of the best spellers there. It was enjoyed by everyone and all left impressed with the idea that Mr. Sugg was the right man in the right place. We desire to make special mention of the following young men who secured County diplomas: Hugh Adams, 91.8; Ellis Henry, 90; Errol McGehee, 95.5.

Careful Prescription Work

Careful is the exact word. We are careful in buying drugs, careful in testing them, careful in keeping the stock always fresh, careful in throwing out any drugs that have deteriorated, careful in keeping the utensils clean and in spic-span order, careful in weighing out ingredients, careful in using the exact brand of drugs specified on the prescription, careful in working up the ingredients into the compound, careful in checking off the work so as to prevent any mistake, careful in wrapping the bottle so as to make a neat and attractive package, careful in cleaning up after the work is done. We are just as careful not to overcharge a customer. The work is done as speedily as possible so as not to cause undue delay. All these things have given us a big and rapidly growing prescription department.

Rev. J. A. Minch Leaves.

Reverend Jos. A. Minch, who has been pastor of the "Sacred Heart" church, of Hickman, for the past seven years, has been called by the Bishop to Leitchfield, Ky., to take charge of the Catholic church at that place.

Rev. Minch left for his new home Friday.

During his long association with Hickman people he has made many friends, who regret his departure, and the Courier joins them in wishing him happiness and prosperity in his new field.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a financial statement of the church from the time of Rev. Minch's arrival here until his departure.

—If you want a sewing machine that gives satisfaction, get a Singer. It is noted for its durability and light running—just what the woman wants. Call on L. A. Brock, Agent. He has one for you.

On Friday afternoon, Feb. 15th, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Paris entertained at six o'clock dinner at Jones' Cafe, in honor of Captains Walts, Brasee, Campbell and Bolat. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jones and son, and Miss Maude Moore.

Cut This Out.

Every time the "wild-cat" whistle blows folks ask, "Where is the fire?" Possibly one in ten could answer correctly. Here are the signals:

West Hickman, two short blasts. Old Hickman, three short blasts. East Hickman, four short blasts. Cut this out and paste it where you can find it next time that whistle blows.

SQUIRREL ROBBED MAIL.

The robbing of the United States mail by a squirrel was a most unusual incident which occurred in this city the other day, says a Winona correspondent of the St. Paul Dispatch.

Martin Daszkowski, one of the oldest mail carriers in the city, was on his regular rounds and had among his mail to be delivered an advertising card to which was attached a large walnut, inside of which was the matter advertised. A little squirrel, of which there are many in Winona, seeing the nut, jumped upon Mr. Daszkowski's shoulder and running down his arm with lightning speed took the nut and card from his hand and then climbed a nearby tree, where it investigated the contents of the nut.

Fortunately, upon discovering that the nut was not the kind it wanted, the squirrel dropped it and the card without damaging either and they were later delivered to the proper address.

GUARANTEED.

Croakley—Why are you so sure our parachute will open?
Gassleigh—Well, the man told me if it didn't open I could bring it back.

IT'S SUNNY SIDE.

"After all, life in the country has its recompenses," said the man who observes and cogitates. "Now, in the city, in order to gain fame one must be a multimillionaire, an eminent philanthropist and egotist, a deft, dashing or diabolical criminal, a monumental spendthrift or an absolutely blank fool; but in the average village he can become the object of hatred and envy of most of his fellowmen; be convicted at the sewing circle of being a dark and dangerous debauchee, be in imminent danger of a church trial, and have the old men wag their heads in suspicion and the little boys run out their tongues in derision when he passes by, merely by getting it stated in the weekly newspaper that he is thinking of buying a motor car."—Puck.

REID'S SIMPLE DIET.

Whitlaw Reid, the American minister to Great Britain, is extremely careful in his diet, which is of a very simple character. He drinks copiously of milk and oatmeal, but he eschews both tea and coffee. Nevertheless, when he holds a reception, as he did at Dorchester house on the Fourth of July, his guests have no reason to complain of the fare. "It was magnificent," declared a New Englander who was there.

EDISON'S RECUPERATION.

Those who chance to pass the dwelling of Thomas A. Edison, the electrician, at an early hour in the morning are sometimes astonished to hear an organ being played and wonder who is thus amusing himself at a time when others are fast asleep. It is Edison himself, who, after a long period of work in the laboratory, will refresh himself mentally by a couple of tunes on his favorite instrument, thus preparing for recuperative slumber.

NOT AN ARMLESS VENUS.

"Ah! Miss Strong, you're a regular Venus," said Jack Nerry as he attempted to kiss her.
"That's what," she replied as she gave him a right-arm jolt on the nose and followed it up with a left-arm swing to the jaw, "but, fortunately, I'm no Venus di Milo."

STUCK IN HIS MIND.

"Of course Dubley's married. Didn't you know that?"
"No. Why, he said he wouldn't marry the best woman on earth."
"Yes, and he kept his word."

IN THE STUD!

—At Oakwood Stock Farm, Hickman, Ky.—

ALFRED G, 12452.

Record 2:19 3/4.

This great horse is conceded to be one of the greatest harness horse sires of the present day. Having sired three with records better than 2:10 and forty others with records better than 2:30. He is 15.3 hands high, rich brown in color and has the best of disposition. As to being a sire that is the best that has ever been in Western Kentucky or Tennessee, he needs no recommendation.

TERMS for the season of 1907, $30.00 cash at time of service to insure. Alfred G. will only be allowed 20 outside mares.

DR. ROAN, 44832

This young horse is the grandest bred fellow in Kentucky. He is by Alfred G 12452, and his first dam is that greatest of great broodmares, SPANISH MAIDEN "dam of Lizzie A (3) 2:13 1/2, Margrave 2:15 1/2 (sold when 17 years old for $6700) Cuban 2:18 1/4, Baron Review 2:21 1/4, Hobart 2:18 1/4, Alverton 2:23, Sunday Morning 2:29 1/2," by Happy Medium 400, sire of Nancy Hanks 2:04. Dr. Roan is a roan horse 16 hands high with great bone and substance and has a great flight of speed. This horse will not make a public season this year. Will be used for my private use.

IRASCIBLE SQUIRREL, 2808.

Black Horse, 16 hands high, foaled 1901.

IRASCIBLE SQUIRREL is the blackest of black horses, with the best of dispositions, fine mane and tail, has length of neck and the best back that any horse ever had, with fine bone and a great deal of substance. He has fine action at all the gaits. He is a fine breeder and his pedigree cannot be improved upon as a saddle horse. His traces on his sire's side to Black Squirrel, Dave Skain, Peavine—all noted horses in the saddle horse history. On his dam's side he traces to Mambrino Patchen, Berthune (sire of VanMeter's Waxy foundation stock), to Bald Hornet, an extra fine saddle stallion, and Grey Eagle. His first, third, fourth and fifth dams were all noted saddle mares, going a running walk, pace and trot, also the rack naturally, fast and easy. There is no saddle stallion with as many natural gaits, saddle dams as this one.

TERMS for the season of 1907, $20.00 to insure.

SEASON OPENS MARCH 15, 1907.

Tabulated pedigrees of the above mentioned stallions will be furnished upon application. It will give us great pleasure to show these horses to the breeding public at any and all times.

FOR SALE—A few choice harness-bred colts and fillies.

THE A. S. OF E. COLUMN

—BY MR. J. H. SAUNDERS—

The roads are drying rapidly and the farmers are getting busy.

The A. S. of E. held a meeting at Simmons to discuss the best method of holding the wheat crop. They held one at Cayce on Friday for the same purpose. They will have held a large union meeting at Simmons, before this reaches my readers, to discuss ways and means to build a grain elevator at State Line. They may build one at Cayce too.

Our county officers have been looking out for oats and clover seed. Some of our union friends in Tennessee held their clover seed while others dumped theirs on the market at $5 to $6 per bushel. Those who held wrote to a friend in Hickman offering seed at $8. Our members and friends took them rapidly. We afterwards found twenty more bushels at the same price. I guess they will all be purchased before this is in print.

This beautifully illustrates what the A. S. of E. aims to do, i. e., bring the producer and consumer together. These producers received $2 per bushel more for their seed than their neighbors who dumped their crops received last fall. Now they are selling the seed to the union farmers at $8, while other farmers are paying $9.50 for their seed. Thus the producer gets $2 more per bushel, and the consumer also saves $1.50 per bushel by organization.

The tobacco growers tell me that their organization pays them much better than this. Before they organized they sold at $3 and $1. Now they sell their dark tobacco at $10 and $3, and their barley at $15, and a man who travels all the time and sells tobacco, told me that the consumer gets his tobacco now just as cheap as he did before the farmers organized. Why is this?

When the farmer dumps his clover seed in the fall at $5 to $6 per bushel they are sent to St. Louis, Chicago or another city. The seed men hold them until January or February, and sell to the retail dealer at $7.20 to $8 per bushel as they are now quoted in St. Louis. By the time the retail dealer pays freight and a reasonable profit he must have about $9.50 per bushel, otherwise he could not live.

Now, who is to blame for all this? The merchant? No, sir. The dear farmers themselves.

You remember the old story of the lark, and the farmer, so long as the farmer waited on his neighbors, kindred and friends, his grain was not cut. But when he determined to cut it himself the lark said it was time for her to move.

Just as long as we wait on the merchants to buy, store and take care of our products for us, we may expect to pay them a good price for doing so, but when we put up our own store houses and take care of our crops, then, but not until then, may we expect profitable prices.

Does this mean that we are making war on our merchants? By no means. We need and must have merchants to handle boots, shoes, dry goods, groceries, furniture, machinery and hundreds of things that we haven't either time or inclination to handle. But, because they handle all these things is no reason why we should depend upon them to handle our crops which we ought to handle and must handle ourselves if we ever expect to get profitable prices for them.

We find the following in the St. Louis Star: Galveston, Tex., Feb. 4.—The farmers union have perfected plans to control the cotton market by holding the cotton at a minimum of ten cents. They propose the erection of at least two warehouses in each of the seven hundred and twelve cotton-producing counties of the south, with six large central warehouses with total capacity for storing 6,000,000 bales or half of an average crop. They will spend $10,000,000 in the erection of these warehouses. Twenty-seven of the leading banking institutions of Texas and Louisiana are financing the deal.

These cotton growers claim to 1,000,000 strong. They are holding meetings all over the south. The meetings are addressed by governors, ex-governors, senators, judges and the leading statesmen of the country. The wealthiest farmers of the country are the members of the union. They are backed by the strongest banks in the country. Then, if the cotton growers, the tobacco growers, the stockmen and all other branches of agriculture are organizing, why can't we?

The Fulton Leader says:—R. S. Williams, business manager of the Leader, left Sunday night for Carson, Nev., where he goes to appear against a man charged with fraudulent use of the U. S. mail. By means of "fake" advertisements issued in newspapers in this section of the state, the prisoner is alleged to have secured a large amount of money. Through information furnished by the Leader, postoffice inspectors have placed the man under arrest. His trial is to come up about Feb. 27th and Mr. Williams was summoned to appear against him. It is quite a long trip to take for the purpose of appearing as a witness but believing the man should be punished, Mr. Williams undertakes it cheerfully.

Mengel Factory Burns.

About 1:20 o'clock Sunday morning a fire alarm was turned in and the citizens were awakened to see the old or "upper" factory, of the Mengel Box company in flames.

The fire was far beyond control when discovered, and only by heroic work were the stove sheds, containing thousands of dollars worth of material, kept from going with the rest. Had there been any wind at all, the fire would have played havoc with the cotton mills and other property.

How the fire originated is a mystery. Investigation shows that the workman, Henry Smith, made his mistake through the factory up to within fifteen minutes of the time the fire was discovered coming through the roof. There was less combustible material in the part of the building where the fire started than any other part.

This factory was valued at $25,000. There is some insurance on it, but will not cover the loss. The president Walker, manager of the company's interests at this point, regrets the fact that they will remain at once. Work has already begun on the clearing away of the debris.

Only one hundred men were engaged out of employment as a result of this fire.

Dorena.

Mr. J. D. Pickett is on the sick list this week.

Mr. O. T. Aydelott and son Chas. of Meley passed through here en route to Hickman Saturday.

Abby brothers brought down a large load of hay Saturday for the new contractors from Cairo.

Mr. J. R. Bryant returned home from Nashville last week prepared to handle the corn in this section of the country.

Mr. Stella Hall returned home from Hickman where she has been spending a few weeks with her mother Mrs. Pickett.

Have you bought your coal? If not, why not telephone no. 487?

E. CASE MEMORIAL FUND.
Rec'd A. A. Paris, Exr estate of E. Case	500.00
By 5 City Hall bonds redeemed	500.00

The foregoing statement shows a total balance in the treasury Jan. 1, 1907 of $858.45. During the year two City Hall bonds, together with all interest thereon were paid, the only outstanding City Hall bonds are the five bonds redeemed with the E. Case Memorial Fund and as is above shown the $1,000 note of Tom Dillon Jr., was paid during the year. The bonded indebtedness of the city, other than that heretofore mentioned, is the $30,000 30-year bonds upon which all interest has been paid.

The present indebtedness of the city other than that heretofore mentioned, with the exception of a few small accounts, is as follows: H. Buchanan, note for $1000 upon which all interest has been paid.

Respectfully,
H. C. Helm, C. C.

On motion the foregoing reports were received, ordered published and filed.

The Mayor reported that in accordance with instructions from the Council at last meeting he had loaned the $2000 out of the Water and Light bond account to B. G. Hale for a term of five years at 6 per cent. interest payable annually, secured by a first mortgage on 340 acres of land.

On motion council adjourned.

R. A. Tyler And His Horses.

R. A. Tyler came home Saturday from Lexington, Ky., where he has been attending the Kentucky sales. He took with him twenty of his horses which he sold at good prices.

His Alfred G. colts sold for prices which were third highest of any horses sold at the Kentucky sales. This speaks well for Mr. Tyler's horses, which, everyone knows are noted throughout the country. While gone he purchased a new horse, Irascible Squirrel, a horse that has been shown six years and has never been beaten in a show ring, and is one of the most noted saddle horses in the bluegrass region. Bob Tyler never does anything by halves, and spares no expense to have the very best. No matter what the price may be. His Oakwood farm is gaining notoriety throughout the country as one of the most complete and successful thoroughbred stock farms in the state. His stock always comes away from a show with flying colors, and the demand for his horses is greater every day.

Masquerade Ball.

The fancy dress and masquerade ball given Thursday evening at the Usuna Hotel was a grand social success. Fulton's pretty society girls were out in full force, attended by their beau-gallants. Many beautiful society leaders from neighboring cities were in attendance. Prominent among these were Misses Eunice Meadows, Dyersburg; Emily Hanford, Batesville Ark.; Marie Brevard, Hickman; Lucile Morris and Pearl Chambers, Union City, and Lillie Wilson, Newbern. Frank Smith and Miss Nell Martin Morris led the grand march.

The masqueraders represented many unique characters, most of them being so well disguised that recognition was impossible, until the hour arrived to unmask.

To the soft seductive music the gay party danced until the wee small hours of the morning, each dancer going home satisfied with the perfect success of the masquerade ball.—Fulton Leader.

Union Revival Meeting.

Rev. B. Marvin Harris, of Dearborn, Mo., will arrive in Hickman, on March 2. And on Sunday, March 3, he will begin the union revival services.

It seems an opportune time for all christian workers to unite their efforts for a general awakening. Each church will be benefited by a revival that embraces the entire community. Surely every one would rejoice in an improved state of morals and a quickened interest in all Godly virtues. There are many young lives that will never be reached by gospel influences except through an awakening of the whole community.

The singing folks should get themselves in readiness for this meeting. The choir leader will be here to organize a full chorus class before the meeting begins.

Let all christian workers unite in one, earnest effort for the salvation of the lost.

H. C. Johnson.

A Mail Order Creed.

Twelve commandments make up the decalogue of the mail order house.

These commandments were not written on stone by Moses, but they are thoroughly understood, and frequently pumped into by anyone who deals with the catalogue mail order concerns.

Following are twelve commandments which thoroughly indicate the business side of these concerns:

1 You shall sell your farm products for cash wherever you can, but not to us; we do not buy from you.
2 You shall believe our statements and buy all you need from us because we want to be good to you, although we are not acquainted with you.

3 You shall send the money in advance to give us a chance to get the goods from the factory with your money, and meanwhile you will have to wait patiently a few weeks because that is our business method.

4 You shall do everything in your power to help us take the money from your merchants. They do not need it; we do.

5 You shall buy your church bells and interior church fixtures from us and forward the money in advance, for that is our business method.

6 You shall collect from the business men in your vicinity as much money as you can for the benefit of your churches. Although we get more money from you than they do, still it is against our rules to donate money for building country churches.

7 You shall buy your tools from us and be your own mechanic in order to drive the mechanic from your vicinity, for we wish it so.

8 You will induce your neighbor to buy everything from us, as we have room for more money.

9 You shall often look at the beautiful pictures in our catalogue so your wishes will increase and you will send in a big order, although you are not in immediate need of the goods, otherwise you might have money left to buy necessary goods of your local merchants.

10 You shall have the mechanics that repair the goods you buy from us book the bill, so that you can send the money for his labor to us for new goods, otherwise he will not notice our influence.

11 You should believe us in preference to your local merchants.

12 You shall, in case of accident, sickness, or need, apply to local dealers for aid and credit, as we do not know you.

No Fruit Equal to the Apple.

There is no fruit that is so universally eaten as the apple. The supply is not one-fourth what it should be to meet the wants of the people. Every home should plant this spring from one dozen to an acre of apple trees. No fruit is more wholesome. To use them freely both cooked and uncooked is a sure method of keeping down doctors' bills, and excellent preventive against, and possible cure for, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc. All the old orchards should now be pruned and sprayed with what is called Bordeaux mixture. Apples will average a profit of $50 per acre if manipulated by an intelligent person.

Capt. Brazee Dead.

Captain Hiram O. Brazee, who is known in Hickman, and who is a steamboat inspector of the Memphis district, died suddenly in the waiting room at Gibbs Saturday morning last. The captain, whose home is at Tell City, Ind., had been home on a week's vacation, and was returning to Memphis. He intended stopping at Hickman to inspect the Bart E. L. Molo, and telegraphed Capt. Waltz to meet him at Gibbs and accompany him to Hickman. This he did. They came to Hickman Friday, inspected the boat, returned to Gibbs Friday night and stayed at the hotel, getting up the next morning to catch the early morning train to Memphis. One of the Courier editors went to Paducah Friday, and saw Capt. Brazee waiting for the Hickman train. On returning Saturday, he noticed him in the waiting room, apparently waiting for a train, and remarked that that gentleman was there the day before. Almost at that moment the captain dropped his head on his breast as if asleep. The train had arrived upon which the inspectors were to depart, and Capt. Waltz said "Here is our train, let's go!" and at the door, looked back and saw that he did not move. Thinking him asleep, he shook him, but to no avail. Still not realizing that he was dead, but thought him unconscious, he called some one to help arouse him. Upon feeling his pulse it was found that he had died and the body was still warm. His body was taken to the freight room, to await the fast train to Memphis, which stopped and took the corpse.

He had been feeling indisposed at Hickman the day before, and had Dr. Hubbard to give him some medicine, but when he got up at the hotel Saturday morning he said he felt much better. Dr. Hubbard said to the Courier that when he gave him some medicine he was apparently suffering from acute indigestion.

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal says of him: He was appointed inspector of hulls in 1892, and held that position until 1897, when he took a commission on the government fleet flying at Memphis. He held this position until seven years ago, when he was again appointed inspector of hulls for this district, and remained in that office until his death. He was a Mason of high degree, and had many friends in the city, having lived in Memphis about twenty-five years. He was 61 years old.

"Swapin' Day."

In view of the fact that many of our neighboring towns set apart certain days for horse trading, and the like, for the benefit of their farmer friends—and that it proves profitable and convenient—the Fulton Local Union A. S. of E. has instructed the Courier to announce that Saturday, March 2, has been selected as a free-for-all "swapin' day" in Hickman.

Bring out your horses and old skates—anything worth $5 to $500 goes—and take a hand in the fun. You may skin or get skinned—but that's your lookout. There will be no restrictions on what you trade or how often.

This will afford you an opportunity to match up some teams for the opening of the farming season. Also, a chance to buy or sell.

Tell your neighbor about this matter. Don't forget the date—Saturday, March 2.

GREATER LOUISVILLE EXPOSITION

Will Open on March 18 For Two Weeks With Many Important and Attractive Exhibits.

Filled with exhibits representing many varied lines of manufacturing industry, the Greater Louisville Exposition will open in the vast Armory of the First Regiment, in Louisville, on March 18. The plans of the exposition company have matured rapidly since November 21, when the enterprise was officially launched and when the organization of the exposition forces was begun.

With no idea of profit, but with the purpose of showing to all sections of this great state what its metropolis can do, and in doing, the members of the Louisville Commercial Club went into the exposition work, and the people of this and all other sections of Kentucky, as well as the South and Southwest, will find there much of pleasure and of profit. The awakening of Louisville has been evident to all lovers of Kentucky, and now Louisville is making ready to entertain all Kentucky in particular and all other people in general, besides, at the same time, showing what she has accomplished.

Louisville occupies the first place in many lines of manufacturing industry, besides being very near the top in very many others. From all these lines there came, at the call of the exposition company, hundreds of exposition workers, who gave of their time, their thought and their labor to filling the vast building with the elaborate exhibits which will be shown there from March 18 to 30.

Foremost among the many industries in Louisville stands the tanning trade, with its allied lines. There are thirteen immense tanneries in Louisville, and these furnish leather to scores of manufacturing plants requiring leather as raw material. Those in Louisville who know have declared that Louisville leather represented in the Greater Louisville Exposition will furnish deep surprise for exposition visitors.

In the manufacture of agricultural implements and farm wagons, Louisville takes second place to no city. Three magnificent plants turn out a wonderful array of labor-saving devices for the farmer, and the wagon factory, the largest in the world, ships its products, not only north, south, east and west throughout this broad land, but to other countries as well.

Millions of yards of cloth in varied textures are cut yearly by the clothing factories in Louisville. Within the past decade Louisville has taken a recognized position as one of the principal centers in the manufacture of clothing. There is no city in the union where Louisville-made garments are not worn.

In shoes, shirts, hats and other articles of wear Louisville's manufacturing interest is very great. There is no doubt that Louisville could well supply herself with wearing apparel, were she cut off from communication with outside markets. It will be of vast interest to the people of this section to see what the greatest manufacturing city of the state can do for herself and for hers.

In the manufacture of food products, no less than that in the other ones, Louisville stands out as a preeminent center. All Kentucky, and, especially those in this section, will be interested in the exhibits to be shown in the Greater Louisville Exposition, for Louisville largely supplies them with their food grain. The Greater Louisville Exposition Company has invited the people of Kentucky to go to the exposition, and the railroads serving those people established a rate of one fare for the round trip during the exposition period. The Lee Line Company and Louisville & Evansville Packet Company have made a rate of a fare and a third, including meals and stationery for the round trip, while the Louisville & Cincinnati Packet Company has announced that the rate will be one fare for the exposition period, exclusive of meals and stationery. Besides the interest in the exposition, two daily concerts by the famous band of the Neapolitan bandmaster, Cremona, and other excellent features, for the low admission rate of twenty-five cents.

General News-Notes.

Columbus has a new bank with $20,000 capital stock.

An Oregon editor is much disgusted because in his haste he killed the wrong man. He thinks his eyes are failing him and will probably adopt spectacles.

Twenty-three years ago a bull belonging to Thomas E. Sublette a farmer, was killed by a St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern train and Farmer Sublette got judgement in the justice of the peace court for the approximate value of the bovine. The other day an opinion was handed down in the St. Louis court of appeals holding that the railroad company must pay the judgement.

with interest, amounting to $276.95.

This piece of News comes from Macon, Mo.—Reports of damage to stock on river bottoms are coming in. Just before the cold weather, which sent the mercury to the bottom of the tube, the bottoms were flooded by heavy rains up the country to a depth of from four to eight feet. Cattle and other stock were hurried to the highlands, but in some cases the freeze came on so rapidly that they were caught in the open. John Shockey, a farmer on Salt River lost twelve head of steers, and many of his neighbors suffered as severely. Shockey observed his stock standing straight up, out in the ice, and with his men hurried to them but every one was dead and frozen stiff. Six head of horses belonging to Joseph Abrams on East Fork bottom, were caught by the flood in a large, fenced pasture. As the waters rose the horses moved to the higher ground where further progress was blocked by a strong wire fence. There they stood at bay, while the water rose clear up to their bodies. Then the wind shifted, and inside of twenty-four hours they were tightly imprisoned in an ice mold from two to three inches thick. Abram's men had to cut through a mile of ice to release the half-frozen animals. They were taken to a hay stack, which they attacked like famished wolves. The legs of the horses were swollen as large as a man's body, but none died. They had been standing in water four days, and in ice up to their bodies twenty-four hours.

It is not generally known, but it is nevertheless a fact, that convicts in the Ohio penitentiary earn as high as $50 or $60 a month, for themselves working overtime. They have a certain task to perform in eight hours, and all work they get out above their tasks is credited to them. In the bolt shop alone more than 200 men divide every month $900 for work accomplished in overtime. The convicts are not allowed

Wilson. A number of visitors from adjoining counties, who were equally interested, also expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of good roads. While no definite action was taken it was generally understood that a vote would be recommended on $250,000 or $300,000 bonds. The fiscal court will take up the matter at an early date, as was announced by Mr. Browder Saturday.
The country is thoroughly aroused over the question and the slogan today is for good roads. Another meeting has been called for the farmers to meet with the Fulton
Commercial club on Saturday, Feb.
23, at the city hall at 1 o'clock in the afternoon; at which time the good roads question will be presented in a more intelligent way. Tell your neighbors about it and let us have a good crowd, and remember the date, at 1 o'clock p. m., Saturday, February 23.

Fire in West Hickman.

The three room residence of C. F. Smith, a machinist in West Hickman, was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Only a small part of his household goods was saved.
We are told that the fire started from a defective flue in the kitchen. He had some insurance.
A three room, frame residence, just east of Mr. Smith's was barely saved, and damaged almost beyond repair. This house was occupied by Marion A'Kochs, and belonged to Nick Holcombe. Mr. Holcombe carried insurance on his building.

Capt. Dipple and wife returned from Iowa, Monday.

State Line, Ky.

News comes from Malden, Mo., that Attorney D. R. Cox and Dr. J. W. Beal were shot down in the latter's office Monday. The shooting was done by A. L. Brannon, who who was engaged in the whisky business. Both victims were killed almost instantly. While being taken to the county jail at Kennett, the assassin was shot several times by an unknown man.

Townsend-Shaw.

Another surprise wedding was made known late Monday afternoon, in which Miss Nannie Shaw, of near State Line, and Mr. Edgar Townsend were the participants. Their friends were not thinking of such an occurrence, and hence came as a surprise, though a pleasant one.

vine.
—Cowper.

Few young men possess more loyal friends than does Mr. Townsend, he having been employed in the clothing department of Smith & Amberg's for several years and has made a legion of friends. He is a son of Mr. John Townsend, who is one of Fulton county's most progressive farmers, and who lives on route one, about four miles south of town.

Mrs. Townsend is the eldest daughter of the late George Shaw, another substantial farmer, and she also possesses many loyal friends. The happy young couple has the best wishes of the Courier for a long and prosperous life.

Two of a Family Died.

Miss Anna King Davis, aged 14 years, and Miss Rebecca King Davis aged 16 years, both living with their parents on Val Carpenter's farm six miles west of Hickman, died Tuesday evening. The deaths occurred within a few hours of each other.

Both of the young ladies complained of being sick Monday, but was not thought seriously so. Tuesday they were worse and before medical aid could be procured death overtook them. What caused their death has not yet been ascertained.

The Courier extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Davis in this dark hour of sorrow.

If you are from "Missouri" call at Bradley & Parham's.

Currier's Home Circle

One active beech nut, given a chance will result in a forest. One little thought strayed right will go round the world and keep on its travels. It gets there by moving, not by sitting sulky in the sawdust and wishing it were a plum pudding. Move on. Catch on. Hold fast as long as you can, and if you are knocked off, grab for the next car that comes along and you will get there. But don't start in the wrong direction. Do not start for the drunkard's grave, or you will be sure to get there. Do not start in to go to bed whenever some "smart aleck" blows the horn for you to fall in, lest you fall in where it is deep and ever remain there. Be active or get out of the way, and in one year see how much better off in mind, body, and comforts you will be.

Don't be a grumbler. Some people contrive to get hold of the prickly side of everything; to run up against the sharp corners, and find out all the disagreeable things right. You may as well make up your mind, to begin with, that no one ever found the world as he would like it; but you are to take your share of the troubles, and bear them bravely. You will be very sure to have troubles laid upon you that belong to other people, unless you are a shirk yourself, but don't grumble. If the work needs doing, and you can do it, never mind about the other person who ought to have done it and did not. Those workers who fill up the gaps, and smooth away the rough spots, and finish up the job others have undone, they are the true peacemakers, and worth a whole lot of growlers.

Young men, the first question your employers ask themselves when business becomes slack and it is thought necessary to economize in the matter of salaries is, "Who can best be spared?" The homing, the chirie, the makehlits, somebody's proteges, somebody's nephews, and especially somebody's good-for-nothing; young men, please remember that these are not the ones who are called for when responsible positions are to be filled. Would you like to know the probabilities of your getting such a position? Inquire within! What are you doing to make yourself valuable in the position you now occupy? If you are doing with your might what your hands find to do, the chances are two to one that you soon become so valuable in that position that you cannot be spared from it, and then, singular to relate, may be the very time when you will be sought out for promotion for a better place.

It is more pleasant to be invited to take a higher seat than to be deprived of it; more pleasant to be king of a cottage than a servant of a palace. It is better to be a good five-cent piece than a bogus quarter; in other words, it is better to hold ourselves at what we are honestly worth. The world is full of people who never know or learn anything, because they think they know enough to begin with. Thousands are teaching when they ought to be taught; thousands believe themselves wise when their ignorance is lamentable; thousands believe themselves clothed in gold when they are only thinly plated and the copper shows through in many places. The wisest are comparatively ignorant and thousands of men who have grand ideas of their own abilities will some day wake up to the realization that they have been laboring under a large-sized delusion. Many a young man's life is gilded by bright dreams that come in the early stage of the game, but later he finds that these dreams are only empty, and O, how little is the change when it comes.

CHARITY AT HOME.

No reward comes to him who robs himself of what he needs to sustain life and health, or what is needed to care for his own, merely to give to those who ask. No man has a right to give what is not fully his own; no right to give away any time that belongs to duty, to create poverty in order to relieve poverty; to lose the respect of his home ones, or to do what will weaken their faith in him as a provider and a protector.

Man's duty is to God, and he discharges the duty when he is true to the family that is the result of his making and begetting. Men err by withholding when they have means to spare as well as not, and they err by giving heedlessly to the endless asking of those whose great aim in life is to attach themselves to those inclined to charity. Help those who are in sickness, in trouble and distress, if you can do so without robbing your creditors, yourself or your family. Be just, and then be generous. To give wisely is an art, to give well is to give successfully.

To provide employment is even humane and wise, but you should give it or find it to those who try to deserve such assistance, not to those who are lazy, dirty, shiftless, careless and indifferent to your success. Let those who will not try to come up just a little higher, with your help, remain where they are, except you are able to give.

No man has a right to walk deliberately into poverty in order to prove his manhood a disposition to humanity. This is not the way to help mankind, or to serve your country. When a man is stricken down, then help him if you can, but do not encourage him to fall again and to keep on falling simply to be helped. Do not be a miser, nor yet a spendthrift. Do not be selfish, but be careful to preserve your health, means and health and ability to help those who will be with us tomorrow, as well as to-day.

If your Christianity will not last all the week and stand the wear and tear of every day things of life, you may be sure you do not possess the real article.

Home-Made Catarrh Cure.

Any one can mix right at home the best remedy of its kind known. The name "Cyclone" is given to the following prescription it is supposed, because of its promptness in driving from the blood and system every vestige of catarrhal poison, relieving this foul and dread disease, no matter where located. To prepare the mixture: Get from any good pharmacy one half ounce Fluid extract dandelion, one ounce Compound syrup sarsaparilla. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This is a harmless, inexpensive mixture, which has a peculiar action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, assisting them to filter and strain from the blood and system all catarrhal poisons, which, if not eradicated, are absorbed by the mucous membrane, and an open sore or catarrh is the result.

Prepare some and try it, as it is the prescription of an eminent catarrh specialist of national reputation.

In giving the recapitulation of the county last week we gave the taxable valuation of the county as something over four millions of dollars; this was correct as to the value of the county, but it included about $200,000 of bank property which is not subject to taxation. The totals were correct, but the taxable value is that much less than reported.

Prohibition Territory.

Nearly half the area of the United States proper is free from legalized saloons, and about thirty millions of our people live in prohibition territory, either State or local.

Alabama has twenty counties free from saloons.

Arkansas forty-four counties free from saloons.

Florida has thirty-two counties free from saloons.

Georgia has one hundred and four counties free from saloons.

Kentucky has ninety-three counties free from saloons.

Louisiana has twenty counties free from saloons.

Maryland has fifteen counties free from saloons.

Texas has one hundred and fifty-three counties free from saloons.

Practically the whole of Tennessee, except a few of the larger towns and cities, is without saloons; also a large part of Virginia, North Carolina and Delaware; while both the manufacture and sale are entirely forbidden by law in Maine, Kansas and North Dakota.

Stray Notice.

Taken up as stray by J. C. Hendrix, living about 3 miles from Hickman on the Dresden Road, in Fulton County, Kentucky, one Bay horse mule, striped legs, supposed to be about three years old, crippled in left hind leg. No other marks. Valued at $40.

Given under my hand this Jan. 5, 1907. W. A. NAYLOR, J. F. C. C. A copy attested.

S. F. KOPER, Clerk.

The Love That Fails.

There is only one kind of love that lasts and lives, and that is the love that lives only to serve. Love that finds its chief interest in what it can get from another is a failure from the start. A man who marries a woman chiefly because she pleases him, and in the hope that she will continue to please him, had better apply for papers of separation along with his marriage license. A recent newspaper item reported that a certain husband applying for divorce declared: "It is to save my soul from perdition. I could not go to heaven if I were compelled to live with her." It does not seem to occur to such a man that his chief duty is not to get to heaven, but to help others, including even his wife, to find heaven here on earth. If he had made that his mission from his wedding day or earlier he would probably not be in such fear of perdition today. Because he is thinking of his own interests and comfort, instead of his wife's, he cannot know the meaning of the love that makes divorces impossible—and that is within the reach of all.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a cough cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, "enlirono" or unsafe ingredients commonly found in cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the pure food and drug law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by all druggists.

A special from Camden says: Parties who live near the banks of Tennessee river in this county report that several deer have been seen there recently, the first time in many years. The cane brakes along the Tennessee are an ideal place for them to feed, and also afford good protection to them during the hard winters. If let alone it will be a few years until they will be numerous. No doubt they are some of the Belle Meade stock which were turned loose by the state not long ago.

The Man With Dandruff can now be cured. He should buy a bottle of ZEMO to-day. ZEMO destroys the germ that causes the disease. Its sweet-oil itching instantly, prevents falling hair and leaves the scalp in a clean healthy condition. All Druggists.

For sale by Helm & Rillison.
